There were similar scenes outside the Hippodrome. Several thousand men were unable to get in, and for a while wild scenes of disorder prevailed. The police were again and again forced back, but finally cleared the streets. No one was seriously hurt, and no arrests were beyond question.

At the Hippodrome the principal address was made by Congressman W.
Bourke Cochran. Final statements were issued to-night by Ivins and Mr. Jerome, and the managers of the latter also sent out an appeal for $10,000 to be raised for the campaign fund by noon to-morrow. Mr. Ivins said:

The candidate of the Democratic party in Halifax who is in the most danger is Hon. R. R. Noblin, the nominee for senator, but it is now believed he will come out all right.

Stand By Noblin

Stand By Noblin

Knowing that a stiff light is being made upon him Governor Montague took occasion to deliver a stirring appeal to his uncounted supporters in the audience to rally to Mr Noblin's standard, and he paid him a splendid tribute as a courageous and honest Democrat and a man in every way fitted for the important office of State senator.

The meeting was in every way one of the Sappless and most successful of the campaign, and nothing but the warmest praise has been heard of the speeches made by Governor Montague and Senator Barksdale.

Mayor McCarthy returned last evening from Keysville, where he spoke for the Democrats Saturday night. The Mayor is one of Mr. Ellyson's new "spellbinders," and promises to be of much use to the party on the stump in the future. Had his abilities in this line been discovered earlier in the fight he would have been sent all over the State in his party's interest.

The Mayor had a most successful meeting, having appeared with Judge Boylan conditions at Keysville say that Captain McCarthy's speech did great good, and that he untangled a most incongenous situation. The Mayor had a most peculiar experience yesterday, which showed that the people of the town are taking the cause of the Democratic party very close to heart.

His Honor attended church and an aged deacon was called upon for prayer. He thanked Heaven for all the blessings that have been bestowed upon the thrifty little town, and in refrring to the Mayor's speech of the night before, said:

There will be a great deal of other speaking by both parties in the State today, but these will be the principal points covered by the Democrats.

The election in Virginia to-morrow is expected to be quilet, though a fairly good turn out of both parties is expected. The returns will be in early, and the result will be known by midnight at least.

The Democrats seem confident of victory, and expect to elect their State ticket by something like 25,000 majority, and to have good, round, safe majorities in both branches of the Legislature

MANCHESTER. November 5.—Business in the cloth trade last week was of fair dimensions, with prices firmer. The bulk of the business done was for the home trade account. Inquiries from India and China were numerous, but they were still at unremunerative figures. Printing and finishing cloths experienced the best demand, but sales were restricted through manufacturers being engaged far ahead. Yarns again advanced 1-8c. This naturally restricted business in some directions, but the finest American crops found ready sale. Lower qualities were not so easily disposed of, though some spinners were anxious sellers.
